Deadlines: KU Academic Scholarships: November 1 (priority consideration), December 1 final. Apply early.

Applications are found at www.admissions.ku.edu

Audition time application: three weeks before the audition date.

Admission application deadline: KU School of Music, February 1. Late applications considered.

Your KU Admissions Application, with a music degree listed, is your first step in applying for a music major in the School of Music and for academic scholarships. This application is for the required audition, which is the second step. Preference for music scholarships, except those for athletic bands, is given to students majoring in music. Late audition applications will be considered on a space available basis. Music majors are not fully accepted until a satisfactory audition has been reported to the School of Music academic officer.

Audition Procedures and Requirements for Music Scholarships and Admission to Undergraduate Music Degree Programs

Audition Procedures

1. Apply for admission to KU, with a music degree as a major. November 1 and December 1 are the academic scholarships deadlines. See Admissions website. Submit your Audition Application Form and Audition Time Form at least three weeks before your preferred audition date. Times are confirmed by phone.
2. Admittance letters will be sent soon after the audition. Scholarship award notifications will be mailed in April.
3. All students must audition for admittance to music degrees. Music scholarships are awarded to students majoring in music, except athletic band scholarships. Late audition applications will be considered on a space available basis.
4. Music majors are not fully accepted until a satisfactory audition has been reported to the School of Music academic officer and must indicate a music degree on the initial application to Admissions.
5. Accompanists are optional, except for voice, which is furnished. (See below.) Repertoire is only a suggestion and pieces of comparable difficulty are welcome.

Voice

Requirements and repertoire: Two memorized selections in contrasting styles, including one in classical vocal style. All music must be performed with piano accompaniment. A foreign language piece is not required. An accompanist will be provided, but your own accompanist is welcome. This audition will be used for acceptance into voice degree programs: the BM in vocal performance, BFA in theatre voice, BA in voice, or a BME with vocal emphasis in music education or music therapy. Contact: School of Music Admissions Office, (785) 864-2958, music@ku.edu or address below.
